WILLIAM NELSON WEST AND AILSEY ROGERS

William Nelson West was born July 31, 1775. He married Ailsey Rogers, the daughter of Shadrach Rogers and his wife Hope, probably about 1801 in Sumter County, SC. Although it is known that Shadrach and Hope Rogers had previously been living in Marion Co., SC, there is no evidence that the West origins were in that county. All SC references so far located are in Sumter (or under earlier legal designations of the same area).

In the first reference which seems to be to this individual he is called William West, although usually in later references he is called William N. West. The significance of this is unknown.

March 8, 1799. SC, Claremont Co.: Personally appeared before Jesse Nettles...William West...made oath that he saw Thomas Odil and Ann Odil sign...and also he saw Shadrach Rogers subscribe his name a witness at the same time. Rec. 8 Jan. 1812. (It is possible this deed was recorded earlier in a lost deed book and brought in to be rerecorded; certain deeds in Conveyance Book B have such notations, and it is clear that many early deeds have been lost.)

Sumter Conveyances Book C, p. 291:

Jacob Elmore and Mary his wife of Clearmont County, Sumter District for $400 paid by Jacob Osteen...400 A near Sammy Swamp Branch, waters of Black River...bounding south on land granted to Eusabeus Stone North ..granted to Thomas Odle... .....plat certified 17 Mar. 1786. Jacob (x) Elmore
19 Jan. 1808. Rec. 29 July 1808. Mary (x) Elmore
Wit: Wilson West, Wm. N. West
(The plat shows Nasty Branch)

It is possible that Wilson West was a brother or father of William N. West, as the name is found among his grandchildren. Wilson West married between 5-13-1808 and 9-8-1812 Martha, widow of Ashberry Sylvester (Wills A, 135, & Roll 55). He is listed as a witness several times, received a land grant in 1803 for 285 A on Halfway Swamp, and bought at auction of Isaac Lenoir decd. in 1824 and at auction of Nathl. Bradford decd. in 1825 (Potts Sales II, 93 & 103.) No further information.

Rec. 11 Sept. 1810
Wit: Shadrach Rogers, Timothy Rogers
For conveyance to West and copy plat see Book C page 296 and 297.

In Oct. 1813, William N. West was a jury member (Judg. F, 22); on 14 October, 1814, he signed as Wm. N. West the petition for Samuel Clark which was also signed by his father-in-law, Shadrach Rogers, and two of his brothers-in-law, Reddick Rogers and Esquire Thames.

William N. West's daughter Charity, b. 14 Sept. 1818, always gave her place of birth as SC, so it is assumed the family move to Mississippi took place between 1818 and 1820. William N. West is first found on the Covington Co., Mississippi, tax lists for 1820 (with Reddick Rogers and "Squire Thims"), & 1821. In 1822 a Sampson West is also enumerated, and continues to appear in 1823 and 1824. There is no further information on this individual, and he is not mentioned in the compiled family information which has been assembled. Nevertheless, he is possibly the missing son of William Nelson West which the census information (1820 Covington and 1810 Claremont, SC) would suggest he had, although that son should have been born 1804-1810, which would make him too young to pay poll tax in 1822. On the other hand, William Jasper West named a son Sampson Fillistine West. William N. West continued to appear on the Covington Co. tax rolls for 1823 and 1824, and in 1825 and 1827 appeared but was not required to pay poll tax. (The 1826 and 1830 lists seem lost.) He paid poll tax in 1828 but in 1829, 1831, 1832, 1833, and 1834 appeared but did not pay poll tax. The number of slaves he paid taxes on grew slowly until by 1834 he paid for six. His oldest (?) son, Shadrach Nelson West, appeared for the first time on the tax list in 1825 (as "Nelson West"), which seems late for someone born in 1802.

As the William Nelson West family disappeared from the Covington County tax lists after 1834, it is assumed that they moved to Newton County, Mississippi, about that time. William Nelson West appears on the Newton County, Miss., tax rolls from 1838. William West and Alsey West were among the founding members of Bethel Baptist Church in Newton County (Feb. 11, 1839), and William West was named a deacon. Several of their children were also members, including Charity West in Feb. 1839 (by 1849 she is mentioned as Charity Thompson), and in Feb. 1840 Dorenda Daughdrel. Although nothing is known of the family's church membership in SC, it is perhaps worth mentioning that one of the oldest churches in Sumter Co., SC, was Bethel Baptist Church, "located about eight miles south of the city of Sumter on Nasty Branch, an arm of Black River....The first building was of logs and was apparently on land belonging to Hezekiah or Jesse Nettles." (Historical Sketches of Sumter County, Its Birth and Growth, by Cassie Nicholes. Sumter Co. Historical Comm., 1975, p. 148.) The plats show that Shadrach Rogers' land and the lands of Hezekiah Nettles and of Jesse Nettles had a common boundary line, and Shadrach Rogers sold one tract to Hezekiah Nettles (EE, 146). Perhaps William and Alsey remembered the church of their youth when the time came to name their new church in Newton County.

According to a Bible Record, William Nelson West died on 25 Oct., 1846, and presumably this was in Newton County. This date is supported by his disappearance from the tax rolls. Alsey Rogers West was on the 1850 Census for Newton County, Miss., and on the 1860 Census for Smith County, Miss. living next to her daughter and son-in-law, William and "Luinda Doodrell." She died 7 Sept. 1862, in Smith County, Miss.
